ABOUT AAOSH

Since 2011, the American Academy for Oral Systemic Health (AAOSH) has been at the forefront of advancing the connection between oral and systemic health. Our mission—to save lives through connection, education, and awareness—drives everything we do as we continue to shape the future of preventive medicine and whole-body care.

Throughout the year, AAOSH offers a robust lineup of live webinars, virtual learning events, and our flagship 3-day Annual Session, each designed to educate, inspire, and connect health professionals across disciplines. Our board and committees—composed of leading dentists, physicians, business owners, and innovators—curate expert speakers and content that align with our mission and fuel meaningful progress in the oral-systemic health movement.

AAOSH events unite a diverse and passionate network of professionals, including dentists, hygienists, physicians, nurses, and other healthcare providers, creating powerful opportunities to share research, explore innovation, and build impactful collaborations that elevate patient care.

Partnering with AAOSH connects your brand directly to influential leaders with real purchasing power. Engage decision-makers, strengthen relationships, and showcase your solutions as vital tools in advancing integrated, patient-centered healthcare.

Together, we can transform the future of medicine and dentistry. Join AAOSH as a partner—and be part of a growing movement that's changing lives through knowledge, collaboration, and innovation.
